

Dayton Children's and Partners For Kids Resources

Dayton Children's psychiatry department offers comprehensive outpatient care for children and teens with complex mental health conditions.

DCH psychiatry

The physician connection line facilitates physician-to-physician consults, connecting referring physicians with specialists at Dayton Children's to confer about a patient..

DCH physician connection line

PFK offers Care Coordination services which can help connect patients with local resources, transportation and other services.

PFK: Care Navigation

External Resources

This resource explains what Parent Training in Behavior Management is, as well as how parents can find a therapist.

CDC: Parent Training in Behavior Management

This resource explains what classroom modifications exist for children with ADHD and how to pursue special education services.

CDC: ADHD in the classroom, helping children succeed in school

Vanderbilt questionnaire for full evaluation and diagnosis of ADHD.

Vanderbilt Homepage

The CDC's homepage for ADHD. Provides details the DSM-5 criteria of ADHD.

CDC: Symptoms and Diagnosis of ADHD

Details on identifications of complications and comorbid factors commonly associated with ADHD.

CDC: Other Concerns and Conditions with ADHD

Effective Child Therapy's website offers several resources including descriptions of ADHD, differential diagnoses and effective behavioral therapy options

Effective Child Therapy: ADHD

PARTNERS
FOR KIDS®

